Cracow, May 17.

THis week the King and Queen returned hither from Czenstokowa, where they have been to perform their Devotions, but without making any long stay here, continued their journey to Jaworow in Russia, with intentions of remaining there, till the King goes into the Field with the Army, which will Rendezvous near Leopol. We have Advice, That the Grand Signior was parted from Adrianople, on his way to Constantinople, occasioned by a Rebellion which is said to be broke out in his Territories in Asia; so that we hope the Port will be thereby so far diverted, as that we shall be able to make the War on this side with greater advantage to this Crown, than we have hitherto done.

Venice, May 29. Several French Tartanes are arrived at Zant, being bound with Provisions from the Morea to Messina. From Adrianople we have Letters overland, which say, That on the 12 past, our Ambassador at the Port had his first Audience of the Grand Signior, with the usual Solemnity; That on the 13 of the same Month, the Grand Signior parted from Adrianople, on his journey to Constantinople; That that night he lodged at Falisdere, three Leagues from Adrianople, where the Janizaries made a complaint to the Grand Signior, that they had for several months past not received any Pay; and that the Servizi (Pay-master to the said Janizaries) had made use of the monies for his own use: who being immediately sent for, and not being able to justifie himself, was strangled in the Grand Signiors presence; That being arrived near Constantinople, the Grand Signior had caused his Tents to be set up, and lodged in them, sending orders to the Sultana Mother to repair forthwith with the Militia that was there to Adrianople.

Copenhagen, June 20. This morning arrived here a Vessel from the Baltick, the Master of which reports, That he passed through our Fleet, and that he understood there, of the Victory they had obtained over the Suedes, having taken 8 Men of War, &c. But this meets with little credit here, seeing the same Wind that brought this Vessel to the Soundt, would have brought some of our Advice-Boats, to give the King an account if any thing considerable had passed; but because the Master of the said Vessel, hath affirmed very confidently the truth of what he reported, he hath been put into Prison, till we hear farther, that he may be either rewarded or punished.

Vienna, June 14. On Tuesday last, being the Emperors Birth-day, the Empress Dowager Treated his Imperial Majesty in her Garden of the Favorites, where was present the Electoral Prince of Saxony. On Monday the Emperor gave Audience to the Prince of Newburg, whom he received with great kindness and esteem. The Count Kinsky purposes to part hence in few dayes for Nimeguen, and will be soon followed by the Bishop of Gurcke. On Thursday last the Queen Dowager of Poland arrived at Neustadt, whither the Emperor will go to visit her.

Strasburg, June 19. The French Army, under the command of the Duke of Luxemburg, continues encamped at Hochfeldt, on this side the River Sorr; but we are told that he intends to come to Schaff-holtzheim, on the River Prusch, which is in the Territory of this City. Here was a report some dayes since, as if some Letters of the Duke of Luxemburg had been intercepted, by which it appeared, that he had a design to have surprized Bergh-saverne, Landaw, Weissemburg, and Amwyler; and that to prevent it, the Duke of Lorrain has Posted himself between Lauterburg and Weissemburg, as well as to keep all relief from Philipsburg, which will now be vigorously attacked. We are assured that a new reinforcement is coming from Lorrain to the D. of Luxemburg, and that when arrived, an attempt will be made to raise the siege of Philipsburg.

Spire, June 20. The Duke of Lorrain is at present Posted with greatest part of the Imperial Army near Weissenburg, to cover the Siege of Philipsburg, having sent thither 10 Battalions of Foot, to assist the Troops of the Circles; and we are assured, that the 24 instant, the Trenches will be opened, and that then the Attacks will be advanced with all possible vigor, to which the Electors of Mentz, and of Treves, contribute, by sending several pieces of Cannon, and a considerable quantity of Ammunition. The Elector Palatine has likewise sent from the Arsenal at Manheim, 4 great pieces of Cannon for Battery, 4 Mortar-pieces, 200 Bombes, weighing each 60 l. &c. In the mean time we do not hear that the French make any motion for the relief of the place.

Francfort, June 21. We have been here somewhat surprized with the various Marches and Countermarches of the Armies in Alsace. The news of the Imperial Armies having passed the Rhine at Strasburg, with orders, as was said, from the Emperor, to march directly to the Siege of Philipsburg, came very unexpected, as did likewise the advice of their having again repassed the Rhine the 15 instant at Lauterburg, which they did with great diligence, upon the information the Duke of Lorrain received, that the Duke of Luxemburg was marching towards Haguenaw. The former is at present Posted at Weissenburg, while the Enemy seems intended to march back towards Strasburg, which will put that City into some Alarm. In the mean time the Marquis of Baden Dourlach fortifies the Posts he has taken about Philipsburg, which is every day more and more straitned. The other day the French made a Sally upon the Pioneers that were at work in the quarter of General Vermuller, but they were forced to retire again with some loss. The Prisoners that have been taken on several occasions, speak very differently of the condition of the place; some telling us, that there is so great a want of Provisions, that the Garison is forced to feed upon Horse flesh; others contradict this again, and assure us, that the Besieged have abundance of all Provisions, except Salt; and that the Garison is numerous, and resolved to defend the place to the last, so that amidst these uncertainties, we know not what to credit. Our Magistrates have sent several pieces of Cannon to the Camp, which are now on their way thither, Strasburg has done the like, the Electors Palatine, of Mentz and of Treves, will likewise contribute their parts: and, we are told, that when
